ANNUAL MEETING AGENDA – February 20-21, 2020

D.C. Bar, 901 4th Street NW, Washington, D.C. 20001

Continuing Education: Please look for an evaluation email from D.C. Bar to follow the program, which is required to be submitted within 48 hours in order to receive credit, regardless of your mode of attendance. If you attend any portion of the webinar program and you are seeking CPE/CLE credit, please ensure you write down the 11 codes which will appear on the video screen. You will be required to verify those in order to receive credit.

No Printed Materials: No printed materials will be available. Please print in advance. Materials can be downloaded at: www.eocouncil.org/materials. They will be available the week of the program and may be updated through the program date. If you have technical issues accessing, please contact admin@eocouncil.org.

Location: The DC Program will take place at DC Bar, 901 4th Street, NW, Washington, DC 20001. The program will be held in the second floor Conference Center.

Arrival: Please check in with security in the lobby of the DC Bar Building when you arrive. There will also be tables set up to obtain your name tag and sign in for any CPE or CLE credit. After checking in, you will be directed to the 2nd floor where the conference will be held.

Metro: The closest metro is Judiciary Square on the Red Line.

Parking: Parking is not available in the DC Bar building. Please see the following link for a list of other nearby garages or lots: <https://www.dcbar.org/about-the-bar/news/nearby-parking.cfm> Metered street parking is also available.

Coats/Luggage: The Piney Branch Room on the second floor has been secured for anyone who wishes to store any luggage or other items during the conference. Please be aware that DC Bar nor the Council can ensure security or accept liability for any lost or stolen items.

WiFi: The network is "dcbarwifi" and password 2027374700.

Meals: For those attending on Thursday at the DC Bar, there will be heavy snacks provided in the early afternoon. Continental Breakfast, Boxed Lunch and light snacks in the afternoon will be served on Friday. For anyone who requested a special meal and having trouble finding it, please reach out to one of the TEGE EO Council volunteers or DC Bar staff.

Reception and Dinner: If you are registered for and attending the Reception and Dinner on Thursday night, the time is on the agenda. Both the reception and dinner are at National Guard Association, 1 Massachusetts Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20001. If you would like to attend and are not registered, please email Jeff Schragg at jschragg@newtongrangellc.com.
